

Home Based Services Coordinator and Intake Officer, Part Time Ongoing

The Home Based Services Coordinator and Intake Officer plays a key role in supporting clients to access quality in-home and community-based services. This position is responsible for coordinating care and services for clients under programs such as CHSP and HACC PYP, managing intake and referral processes, conducting client onboarding and care plans, and ensuring services align with individual care plans and assessed needs.

The role works closely with clients, families, staff, contractors, and external stakeholders to ensure responsive, person-centred support while maintaining compliance with accreditation standards, organisational policies, and funding requirements. The position also provides administrative support, assists with service coordination, and contributes to continuous improvement within the Home Based Services team.
